

Cox shows appreciation to a Gilbert customer

Gilbert resident James Fisher was chosen at random as a prize winner in the Cox Customer Appreciation Days.

He received $500, which can be applied to his Cox account, and chose St. Vincent de Paul Society as the charity to receive a matching $500 from Cox Communications Arizona.

Fisher was the first Cox customer in the Valley to receive the promotional prize.

He was expecting a crew to install digital telephone to his Cox services on Oct. 1, when he was greeted by a prize patrol-like delegation from Cox.

For video of the presentation:
www.cox.com/arizona/celebration.asp.

■
Airman Annalee Shreeve has graduated from basic military training at Lackland Air Force Base, San Antonio.

She is the daughter of David Shreeve of Gilbert.

Send information and photos for Gilbert People to gilbert@arizonarepublic.com.