

Cox customer wins $500

SCOTTSDALE — Scottsdale resident Robert Lemm won $500 worth of “digital dollars” from Cox Communications earlier this month and another $500 for his favorite charity.

The windfall was part of a Cox customer appreciation program. Lemm was selected at random for the prizes when he visited the Cox Digital Store in Scottsdale. His $500 charity donation was presented to the Girls Scouts of Arizona. His daughter joined the Scouts last year.

“I know they’ll be appreciative of this donation,” he said. Lemm’s $500 prize can be used for his cable bill or other Cox services.

— Peter Corbett

COX COMMUNICATIONS ARIZONA

Robert Lemm of Scottsdale won $500 worth of digital dollars to be applied to his account and $500 to be donated to the charity of his choice during Cox Customer Celebration Days.