

HD Channel Hookups:

In order to access standard HD programming a splitter must be placed on the cable coming from the wall outlet. One leg needs to feed the digital receiver (which will connect to the TV via RCA cables) and the other needs to be connected directly to the coax input of the HD TV.

Splitters can be obtained in the Community Office.

HDTV/
Receiver

