Every year from Sept. 15- Oct. 15, Cox Communications celebrates Hispanic Heritage Month by recognizing three outstanding individuals. These folks are honored for their contribution to the community and featured in a :30 public service announcement that will run during the month.

Previous winners include:

- Raymond Uzeta
- Andres Martin
- Gracia Molina de Pick
- Ed Martinez
- Robert Rivas
- Marisa Ugarte
- George Lopez
- Patrick Osio
- David Valladolid
- Linda Caballero-Merritt
- Irma Cota
- Bill Virchis
- Alex Montoya
- Eva Pacheco
- Ken Noonan
- Norma Hernandez
- Robert Villarreal
- Rosa Castro
- Jose Manuel Villarreal
- San Diego La Raza
- Lawyers Association
- Pedro Anaya Jr.

If you know anyone worthy of this recognition, please nominate them by completing the form below. Return the completed form to Amy Berry, community relations manager, at amy.berry@cox.com or fax 619.266.5600 by Friday, August 27.

Name: ____________________________
Title: ____________________________ Company: ____________________________
Phone: ____________________________
Email: ____________________________

What contribution has this individual made to the San Diego community?

__________________________________________________________________________

Why do you think this person is deserving of this recognition?

__________________________________________________________________________

__________________________________________________________________________

If selected, nominee would be required to provide a short biography, head shot and photos that best reflect his/her life and accomplishments as well as agree to a one-hour on-camera interview the week of Aug. 30.